

Celebrating Opportunities Through DKG

A Series of On-line Presentations January 18, 25, February 1, 8, and 15

Join the Indiana State Organization welcome a few guest presenters who will enlighten us on different aspects of leadership. Each week we will have a different topic from a different presenter to encourage us to become leaders or better leaders. This opportunity is FREE. If you ever wondered what DKG does for you, here is an example. All presentations will be held at 7:00 p.m. EST/6:00 p.m. CST and should run about one hour.

Since these presentations will be done by using Zoom, you will need to register so that you can be sent a Zoom invitation. You will be able to earn 1 PGP per session for a total of 5 PGPs. Verification of your attendance for the PGPs will be sent out at the end of the series. If you attend all five sessions and attend the convention, you will receive special recognition at the Indiana State Convention held at the Resort by Swan Lake, April 23-25, 2021.

AGENDA

Monday, January 18; 7 PM (EST)/6 PM (CST)

Welcome by Marti Daily, Omega

Presenters: Becky Sadowski (TN), Cathy Daugherty (VA), and Nita Scott (TN)

Topic: Strategies for Chapter Leaders

What do you need to know and do as a 2020-2022 chapter leader? Join the international president, immediate past international president, and executive director in an exploration of this question and others as you plan programs, projects, and events for members at the local level. Share your strategies and engage in conversation that will put you, the chapter leader, ahead of the game going forward.

Wrap up

Monday, January 25; 7 PM (EST)/6 PM (CST)

Welcome by Jo Jones, Mu

Presenter: Bonnie Moore, (TX)

Topic: Coaching to Communicate Success!

This session shares basic coaching skills and gives you language to empower your members to become leaders. You will experience the differences in telling, advising and coaching and you will leave with a new outlook on coaching others and being coached to become a more effective leader.

Wrap up

Monday, February 1; 7 PM (EST)/6 PM (CST)

Welcome by Leslie Hamman, Gamma Lambda

Presenter: Sharlene McGowan, PhD, (Canada)

Topic: Light and Joy: Igniting Strength and Purpose

This interactive workshop will help women educators learn how to ignite their tremendous light and joy despite life's tensions and obstacles. Women possess strength and the capacity for great purpose which, when revealed, are capable of igniting passions and inspiring others to do the same. Topics include compassion fatigue and vicarious trauma, common to many educators.

Wrap up

Monday, February 15; 7 PM (EST)/6 PM (CST)

Welcome by Carol Herzog, Alpha Zeta

Presenter: Dr. Karen M. Duke, \(TX\)

Topic: Time Management for Today's Leaders

Time is limited, but the number of ways in which people can manage time in their professional and personal lives is limitless. Tools for good time management will be shared with participants. Participants will also discover some of the "time saving habits" and "time stealing habits" that today's educators revised and adopted during the 2020-2021 academic year as they taught online or face-to-face in the classroom.
